the neighborhood is now remarkably good.

Wheat and oats are looking well. It was thought during the winter that the wheat would be almost an entire failure, but since the warm weather set in it has come out and bids fair to be really good.

Farmers were never so backward with their crops, scarcely any of them are done planting corn.

Tobacco plants are coming on with a rush, and in a little time will be large enough to set.

Van Day bodied his sweet potatoes one evening not long since, and he prepared the bed so well that by the next morning they were all up (and gone).

One of his neighbors now has a fine prospect for potato slips. I reckon he will divide with Mr. D.

Some one borrowed Virgil Morris' ax and saw one night not long since. As he is needing them he would be glad that they be returned.

On the 10th Inst. Dr. N. J. Rains, of Rosh, Ky., assisted by Dr. Motherhead, of Stewartsville, removed from the back of Mrs. Edward Haynes a large tumor, the smallest diameter of which measured six inches. Mrs. Haynes, since the operation, has been doing remarkably well and will doubtless recover without a single untoward symptom—a thing which was hardly expected, as the wound made in removing the tumor was necessarily some eight or ten inches long and quite deep.

The dexterity and coolness which Dr. Rains manifested in the use of the knife proved to all who witnessed the operation that he is by no means an inferior surgeon, but is destined, at no distant day, to rank with the ablest.

If not providentially hindered I will preach at Stewartsville the fourth Sabbath in this month at 11 o'clock; also, at 4 o'clock same Sabbath at Fair View church.

Great fears are entered that the apples are blasted, especially the late variety.

Hurrah for Carson and Rains.

Yours, J. W. KEOWN.

Butler County.

LANCASTER, May 13.

Farmers are still far behind and some of them are not likely to get up this year.

Wheat is still looking very well. No corn planted scarcely at all yet. Tobacco plants booming and if they continue some of the little fellows just the right size to make tobacco workers are likely to take the spring fever, though it will be rather late.

The weather is very warm at present with some indications of rain, though we are not particularly in need of it yet. We had some to spare last week, but the ground is in good condition for work and is being stirred at a lively rate.

The river is getting down and it is quite common to see stout, healthy men spending their precious moments at the water's edge with pole in hand waiting for a bite. I imagine they get plenty of bites, for gnats and mosquitoes are plentiful and I don't have to go to the river to get a bite from them.

I learn that one day last week Mr. T. D. Herald's oldest son, Elbert, was aiming to lead farewell to this part of the moral vineyard by running away from home. He was met by one of the neighbors who made fun of him for doing so. The little fellow got into the

THE HERALD.

JNO. P. BARRITT, Editor.
CICERO T. SUTTON, Associate Editor.
WEDNESDAY, MAY 25, 1881.

The State Baptist Association held its annual meeting at Shelbyville last week. An interesting, harmonious and profitable session is reported.

A. W. JENKINS, of Butler county, has brought suit against his brother for $10,000 worth of character taken from him by a report that he was a thief.

Mrs. E. C. Davis, sheriff of Daviess county, has resigned on account of the inadequacy of the compensation. The county has neither sheriff or coroner.

A very destructive fire occurred in Nashville on Tuesday, the 17th inst. A large portion of the city was totally ruined, the loss amounting to $900,000.

The adjournment of the Senate last Friday was the quietest ever known. The whole day was, in fact, a day of mourning for the loss of the session.

The Chicago Times has made arrangements to print the entire New Testament as soon as a copy of the revised edition can be procured. This is a novel idea, but there is really nothing strange in the ventures of modern journalism.

It seems that Garfield's design was to create a rupture with Conkling when he withdrew the New York nomination. Now that Conkling has resigned all the nominations have been returned to the Senate, and will no doubt be immediately confirmed.

Mrs. N. J. HARRIS, who has been canvassing Ohio county with her competitor, Judge Carson, this week, narrowly escaped death while returning from Cincinnati on Tuesday night. In driving over a bridge she fell into a hole in the road, and was thrown from her buggy and received several very painful bruises. He was, however, able to continue his canvass Tuesday. —Edm.

"The Use of Slang" is the theme of a correspondent which appears on the first page of this issue. The use of slang is horrible, detestable, abominable, vulgar, vile, vicious, ungentlemanly, unchristianlike, unbecoming, unbecoming, unbecoming, and should not be tolerated by refined society. The writer did not go far enough in his denunciation of it.

Some time since the sheriff of Muhlenberg county decided that he would not collect the railroad tax, but on examining the finding law, the Edm. says he found that if he did not collect, his sureties would be bound for the amount which was $12,000. After deliberation and consultation with his friends and sureties, he concluded that the best way was to go ahead and obey the law. The tax-payers will be compelled to shell out their money.

A Hartford preacher, failing to secure a crowd in the house, has taken to the streets, and proposes to tuck the pedestrians singly as they pass by. The Hartford doesn't say whether he is orthodox or heterodox, but does mention him as Muldoon. —Message and Exchange.

The M. & E. is mistaken as to the Hartford preacher's being unable to secure a crowd in the street. His reason for preaching on the street is, as any one might readily suppose, that he can reach an element in that way which he could not otherwise.

The Brady Star-route gang of thieves have desisted of being able to get Attorney General, McVough, out of the Cabinet. McVough, like Garfield, has a head of his own, only it seems to be even a little stronger, and it is not quite likely that they will be able to get him out by any plan they can invent. Their dearest scheme was the appointment of Wm. E. Chandler as Solicitor General and that having failed there is absolutely no hope for any of them. McVough is the man after our own heart.

Mrs. President Garfield is thought to be slowly recovering from the fever with which she has been afflicted for her bed for the past two weeks. The fever was brought on by over-exercising in filling the social requirements of the White House. A reform is as much needed in this particular as in any other and when it comes to pass that a President's wife is literally worn out simply to satisfy the itching curiosity of an ill-bred populace, every one must admit that the need is painfully apparent.

Fifty thousand families from New York and other States North are about to locate in Tennessee. Will some of our brave men tell us why they can not be induced to come to Kentucky? We have the advantages of Tennessee in every particular and for the life of us we can not see why people do not come here in preference to going to that debt-ridden State. It may be that they do not know that there is such a State as Kentucky, or if they do, know nothing of its advantages. This is the fault of everybody in general and the Legislature in particular in that we have no efficient system of encouraging immigration.

The Senate, after ten dreary weeks of turmoil and blustering, which was far more injurious than absolute idleness, adjourned last Friday. Comparatively nothing has been done although the actual time spent since the commencement of the session was seventy-eight days. The length made with Muhlenberg was never consummated and he now thinks himself to be a political bankrupt without a particle of respect or sympathy in either party. Goddard and Blaine are simply out of a job as far as any Federal office is concerned and it is the opinion of many that Conkling and Platt have put their little shoes away for good, by resigning. Never was so much time spent by the Senate for so little good, and never was a weary people so glad to hear of an event of so little importance.

EX-SENATOR BRUCE, of Mississippi, has been appointed and confirmed as Register of the Treasury.

It is rumored that war between France and Turkey is imminent. Troubles of all kinds seem to be brooding over all of Europe.

Daviess county is proud of her Circuit Court Clerk. He is one of the best clerks in the State. He has for the use of lawyers and litigants a printed docket which is quite convenient and an easy reference.

DR. R. N. PATTERSON, of Louisville, is announced in this issue as a candidate for the Legislature subject to the Democratic convention which is to be held June 6th, 1881. The doctor is a true Democrat, a man of age and experience and is a leading man in his vicinity. If he should be the nominee the HERALD will cheerfully support him.

The enterprising Owensboro book-sellers, W. E. & T. N. Parrish and Geo. & Walter Parrish, have commenced the publication of a trade and literary sheet, entitled The Literary Visitor. It is a four-page, twenty-column, semi-monthly paper and contains a good selection of reading matter.

The exquisite little poem by "Hyaline," which appears on our first page, is a perfect gem and contains more in the way of pure sentiment than is usually expressed in very much more space. "Hyaline" should not hide the talent she undoubtedly possesses.

HON. WM. LE DUC, Commissioner of Agriculture, has resigned at the request of President Garfield. Judge Loring, of Massachusetts, has been appointed in his stead. Le Duc's hobby was tea, the cultivation of which he desired to introduce into the United States. The hobby of Loring will be pumpkins and beans, especially beans.

GEN. GRANT has written a letter to Senator Jones, of Nevada, in which he applauds the action of Conkling and Platt in the Senate. He also severely censures the President for his obduracy in the Robertson matter, and puts forth the idea that it was all done on account of Conkling's advocacy of the third-term principle and consequent opposition of Garfield in the Chicago convention.

Last Friday at midnight the revised edition of the New Testament was given to the world. For some years the committee of revision, composed of the ablest members of all the evangelical churches of Christendom, has been hard at work on what would be a "better and more correct translation of the Scriptures and more especially of the New Testament of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ." Several considerable changes have been made in the wording of various passages, but on the whole it may be relied on as being a more correct version than we have hitherto had. Doubts are entertained as to whether it will be generally accepted or not. Four hundred thousand copies have been printed which will be sold at prices ranging from fifteen cents to sixteen dollars.

The split in the Republican party at Washington has its counterpart in a certain way among the managers of the Kentucky show-bus. Col. Walter E. Evans, who was a candidate for Governor in 1879, has unseated the townhawk and gone in quest of the scalp of Gen. Eli H. Murray, Governor of Utah, for opposing his appointment as Judge of the U. S. Court at Louisville in 1879, and for doing the same thing in relation to his appointment as U. S. Attorney for the district of Kentucky. Evans gets over a good deal of ground in a column and a half article in the Courier-Journal, but if Murray does not get over as much ground and thoroughly rib-roast Evans in addition, we don't know anything about Murray. A man who is not afraid to begin a single-handed fight with the Mormon church is in no danger of being annihilated by a one-man cross-roads politician.

The Hartford Herald ought to be a great paper. It has the names of three editors at the top of its columns, one of which is Cicero and another Lyeurgus. —Louisville Post.

Judge Cofer's Death.
Judge Cofer is dead! The brilliant lawyer, the brave soldier and just and upright judge is no more! All Kentucky laments for he was Kentucky's own and one of her best and noblest. He was born in Elizabethtown, Ky., April 1, 1812, and at the age of twenty-four began the practice of law.

In 1861, being in sympathy with the South, he raised and organized a battalion of men for the Southern service. While in the army he merited and won great distinction and rapid promotion, and, until the close of the war, was always to be found where duty's call was loudest.

At the restoration of peace he resumed the practice of law in Elizabethtown which he continued until 1871, when he was appointed Circuit Judge of the old Fifth Judicial District by Gov. Stevenson. He filled the position by appointment until the ensuing August election when he was regularly elected by the people. He continued to fill the chair until 1874, when he was elected as Associate Justice of the Court of Appeals which position he filled most acceptably till his death, which occurred at 9 o'clock Sunday morning, May 22, 1881.

No Kentucky can to-day utter sadder words than these: "Justice MARTIN H. COFER is dead."

Call for a Democratic Convention.
MORGANTOWN, Ky., May 7, 1881.
The Democratic party of the Eighth Senatorial District of Kentucky, composed of the counties of Ohio, Muhlenberg and Butler, are hereby called to meet in convention at Hartford, Ohio county, Monday, the 6th day of June, 1881, for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for election to the Senate at the ensuing August election.

JEROME T. MOORE,
Chairman 8th Senatorial Dist.

At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of Ohio county, it was

Resolved, That meetings of the Democratic caucus of Ohio county be held at each voting precinct on Saturday, the 4th day of June, at 4 o'clock, p. m., and that delegates be sent to the Senatorial Convention, which has been called to meet at Hartford on Monday, the 6th day of June, 1881.

Resolved, Further, that a County Convention be called to meet at Hartford on the 6th day of June, at 10 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for the House of Representatives, and that the precincts, at the meetings called to elect delegates to the Senatorial Convention, also appoint delegates to the County Convention.

E. HENLEY WALKER, Chairman.
J. E. FOSTER, Secretary.

Records of the W. K. P. A. Meeting at Hopkinsville, Ky., May 18, 1881.

The meeting was called to order by the President, L. W. Coleman, at 8 o'clock, p. m. Of the six papers composing the Association, as organized at Madisonville in January, representatives from the following were present: Henderson Republican, L. W. Coleman; Muhlenberg Edm., F. W. Woodson; South Kentucky Edm., Chas. M. Matheon and W. A. Wilgus. The Madisonville Times, the Princeton Banner and Owensboro Message and Exchange were not represented.

The following papers were then admitted to the Association through representatives present: Hughes Express, Jno. R. Gaines; Baldwin News, Len G. Faxon; Elkton Register, F. H. Hristov; Hartford Herald, Lyeurgus Barrett; Huntsville Herald-Enterprise, C. J. Norwood; Crittenden Press, R. C. Walker; Litchfield Southerner, J. T. Gosnell; and Kuttawa Beacon, A. J. Blake. The Bowling Green Gazette, through a communication addressed to the Secretary, endorsed the resolutions adopted at the former meeting and was admitted to membership in the Association. The new additions increased the number of papers constituting the Association to fifteen, four of which had no representatives present. The following committee on resolutions was then appointed: C. J. Norwood, Jno. R. Gaines and J. T. Gosnell.

Capt. Sam M. Gaines, late of the Kentucky New Era, and Mr. C. E. Robert, late of the Nashville Sunday Courier, were present as visitors and upon motion were elected honorary members of the Association. An invitation from the management of the Nashville Exposition to visit the Exposition in a body was extended the Association through Mr. P. E. Robert.

The committee on lay-laws appointed at the last meeting was granted further time. The committee on resolutions made the following report:

Resolved, That after having tested the resolutions adopted at our last meeting, we are convinced that a strict adherence to the same will be of great benefit to the members of the Association, and we therefore endorse and adopt these said resolutions and declare our intention to adhere to them in the future.

WHEREAS, The present system of advertising property sold by a call of court and under execution is grossly inadequate and causes great sacrifice to the debtor class in the State, and whereas the interest of the people generally would be greatly subserved by a law requiring all property sold at said sales to be properly advertised, therefore be it

Resolved, That this Association urge upon the next Legislature the passage of an advertising law for the first Appellate district and that every editor and publisher in said district be requested to meet in Frankfort, at such time as may be designated by the President of this Association, for the purpose of properly presenting the matter to the Legislature.

Resolved, That we, as members of the Western Kentucky Press Association, will keep and publish on a black list all foreign advertisers or advertising agents who fail to pay for their advertisement when called upon.

Resolved, That whereas the number of emigrants arriving in this country is greater than ever before, many of them being skilled mechanics and bringing with them considerable sums of money, thereby materially advancing the prosperity and general interest of the country, it is the opinion of this association that suitable and vigorous steps should be taken to properly present the attraction and advantages of Southern and Western Kentucky to the public in general, and especially persons seeking homes, and to that end we hereby endorse the South Kentucky Immigration Society recently organized in Hopkinsville, and recommend the various committees of similar societies in the various counties auxiliary to this one.

Resolved, That the Association tender its thanks to the management of the Nashville Exposition for the invitation to attend their exposition, and that circumstances are such that we cannot attend.

Resolved, That we return thanks to the citizens of Hopkinsville for their uniform kindness and hospitality during our sojourn in their beautiful and prosperous city.

Resolved, That we congratulate them on the great excellence of their schools, both public and private.

Resolved, That we do especially congratulate them on the foundation of their public schools, so successfully conducted by Prof. Dietrich, as Superintendent, and Hopkinsville may well be proud of her public schools and the liberality and thoughtfulness of the citizens in providing such a fine building for the comfort of those taught therein, cannot be too highly commended.

Resolved, That we most heartily thank Dr. J. M. Proctor, last President of the Female College, for his kindness in permitting us to witness the exercises in his splendidly conducted school.

Resolved, That Dr. Jas. Rodman, Superintendent of the Western Kentucky Sanitary Asylum, has our sincere thanks for his many attentions and the elegant entertainment enjoyed by us. Also, that the institution is under wise and efficient management, and that we congratulate the State upon the selection of Dr. Rodman as Superintendent.

Hartford Letter.

May 20, 1881.

Editor Herald:
Election is the talk of our little town today, as we were honored with the appearance and voice speech from the lips of the distinguished gentlemen, Judge Carson and Capt. Harris, candidates for the Senate, and Hon. Q. C. Shanks and Jesse Williams, candidates for the Legislature.

Mr. P. P. Hancock left this place a few days ago for Cincinnati to put in his appearance as one of the legal heirs to a large fortune. The Vanderhoofs in England, he having married a Miss Vanderhoof. The lady has become very much attached to him since learning of Mr. P. P. who carried him to the city, that they accidentally took too much overjoyful P. P. being unable to take care of himself, properly, and Mr. P. having to return to Hartford, concluded he would box P. P. and ship him as freight, and Mr. P. having the Hartford show yet in his mind, through mistake marked the box to Miles Orion, "right side up with care, and I understand that the railway company have brought suit against Orion for shipping a wild animal and not a passenger.

His wife fears that at Louisville Nancy Jane Jones took the wrong box and has her husband and himself in the hands of a madman. I understand that Mr. Sam Cooper was married on the 19th inst. The fair one was a Miss Hickey, of Daviess county.

Max (they say he means to be) has after death in Kentucky.

F. M. Dwyer expects to have his mill in running order by the 25th inst. I have visited his mill and find he is getting things in good order. He expects to do good work and accommodate all. When you hear the whistle come to mill.
